MA Languages, Literatures, and Cultures and Graduate Certificate in Instructional Technology in World Languages

The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures offers a flexible program leading to the Master of Arts in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a focus in either teaching or non-teaching areas. Students may concentrate on either French or Spanish. Subject to departmental approval, it is also possible to take up to three graduate courses in other departments or through study abroad. Within the particular language concentration students must choose one of two areas of emphasis: (1) Literary and Cultural Studies, or (2) Theoretical and Applied Linguistics. Instruction in courses is generally carried out in the language of concentration, with the exception of the core courses.
